About Us

The Rural Fire Service (RFS) protects the community and our environment by minimising the impact of fire and other emergencies. Our shared vision is to provide a world standard of excellence in the provision of a volunteer-based community fire and emergency service.

The RFS was established under the Rural Fires Act 1997 and is responsible for preventing and suppressing fires in rural fire districts, as well as being the lead agency for bush firefighting across the State. The agency also operates under the State Emergency and Rescue Management Act 1989. For over 100 years the RFS has been a significant part of the history and landscape of NSW and is widely acknowledged as the largest volunteer fire service in the world.

Fighting fires and protecting the community from emergencies is the most visible aspect of the RFS. The Service also has many responsibilities as the lead agency for bush fire management and mitigation in NSW. Working closely with other agencies, the RFS responds to a range of emergencies including structure fires, motor vehicle accidents and storms that occur within rural fire districts.

Role Purpose

The role coordinates and provides technical and operational support to better protect the community from bush fires and other emergencies.

Focus Areas

Capability	Assists with resource-to-risk planning for effective response to incidents and reduction of bush fire risk to the community. Provides regulatory functions to support bush fire risk management planning outcomes.
Community Risk	Supports strategic organisational programs to reduce risk to the community from bush fire and other emergencies
Community Resilience	Provides technical support and oversight to assist the RFS to reduce the risk and impact of bush fire and other emergencies.
Operations Communication Centre	Works with emergency service agency partners and Districts to support response activities to fires and other emergencies.
State Operations (Aviation)	Assists in coordinating state aviation taskings and supports aviation professional development for members
Various District Functions	Supports a range of services for members and communities to prepare for and response to fire and other emergencies.

The incumbent may be assigned to any and all functions as required.

Key Accountabilities

1. Coordinate services to the community and members of the RFS, and provide high-level support to activities and outcomes while maintaining a strong customer focus to ensure that a quality service is provided for end users.
2. Research, develop and contribute to the development and implementation of high level procedures and guidelines to ensure that a high standard of service is maintained.
3. When needed, lead or participate in activities to protect the community from fire and similar incidents within the scope of qualifications held.
4. Identify potential gaps to ensure support meets the agreed service levels to all stakeholders for the resolution of issues and problems.
5. Ensure that corporate systems are maintained and updated in line with RFS policies and procedures to support the achievement of team objectives.
6. Keep up to date with relevant developments, doctrine, practices and technology as well as RFS Service Standards, procedures and guidelines.
7. Display an appreciation and understanding of the issues that affect a volunteer organisation and the complexities that surround volunteer management.

Key Challenges

- Encountering issues that are often unique, and balancing responsibilities to ensure service delivery to the community is met while dealing with varying viewpoints and competing priorities.
- Working in an environment that is largely decentralised and maintaining diligence in tasks that may at times be complex; requiring attention to detail and the capacity to work within legislative, public sector and organisation requirements.
