Purpose

- 1.1 This Service Standard aims to ensure that the NSW Rural Fire Service (NSW RFS) brand, insignia and name, including the NSW RFS logo (crest and logotype) as the trademarked logo of the NSW RFS, is protected in its presentation, reproduction and usage, by:
- providing for a system of approvals and controls over the branding (e.g. use of crest, logotype, name, imagery etc) of the NSW RFS, to protect the reputation of the NSW RFS;
 - articulating the role of the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines and the State Emergency and Rescue Management Act 1989 (SERM Act) and how they are applied to NSW RFS branding;
 - ensuring that all NSW RFS members and external parties commissioning or undertaking design work involving NSW RFS insignia and brand style follow the principles articulated in the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines; and
 - outlining how NSW RFS members and external parties should seek approval to use or reproduce NSW RFS insignia.

Definitions

- 2.1 The following terms apply for the purposes of NSW RFS Brand:
- a. Approval – the dated written agreement of the appropriate NSW RFS delegate as identified in section 2 of SOP 1.4.2 – 1
 - b. NSW RFS crest – the crest image is a green tree alight with a red fire against a blue sky, with an annulus circled by a full green wreath below an imperial red, white and green coloured crown. The words, in capitals, NSW RURAL FIRE SERVICE appear within concentric circles.
 - c. NSW RFS insignia – any items (being our name, uniforms, emblems, logos, devices, clothing, accoutrements and other things) that are generally recognised as pertaining to the NSW RFS or as being used by a NSW RFS officer, or any reasonable imitation or parts of such items.
 - d. NSW RFS logo – the logo is comprised of two parts: the NSW RFS crest and the NSW RFS logotype which makes the Service's name prominent.
 - e. NSW RFS logotype – the logotype is presented in Gotham or Arial font in capital letters as: NSW RURAL FIRE SERVICE or NSW RFS. It can also be used on its own in place of the crest.
 - f. NSW RFS name - the organisation is the NSW Rural Fire Service. The correct abbreviation of that name is NSW RFS
 - g. One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines – are guidelines for the presentation of the NSW RFS brand including the logo, colour palette, typeface (font), design elements and photographic style. Further guidelines are contained in the Service Standard 8.1.2 Vehicle Marking and Identification.
 - h. SERM Act – State Emergency and Rescue Management Act 1989.

Policy

- 3.1 Any form of reproduction of NSW RFS insignia including, but not limited to, printed, online and manufactured resources, must comply with this Service Standard and its Standard Operating Procedures, the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines and the SERM Act to ensure consistency, accuracy and quality control.
- 3.2 All persons, companies and organisations, including NSW RFS members, wishing to reproduce NSW RFS insignia must first obtain written permission as outlined in SOP 1.4.2 - 1.
- 3.3 The NSW RFS at all times retains its right to withdraw approval for reasons including, but not limited to, a change in the applicant, product, or image currency, applicability or suitability.
- 3.4 All NSW RFS members can use pre-approved materials without seeking approval/written permission. For example:
- a. using branded templates and resources available in the One NSW RFS Tool Kit or Social Media Tool Kit
 - b. using content created complying with the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines and NSW RFS Social Media Style Guide.
- 3.5 Brigades and business units can use Service-related material depicting NSW RFS insignia (e.g. photos of members wearing PPC and/or NSW RFS vehicles etc) on social media without applying for approval when:
- a. it is part of approved NSW RFS activities and members depicted are complying with all relevant Service Standards; and/or
 - b. it uses a template/resource provided in the NSW RFS Social Media Tool Kit; or
 - c. it uses content created complying with the NSW RFS Social Media Style Guide and/or the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines.
- 3.6 It is the responsibility of every NSW RFS member to comply with this Service Standard and its Standard Operating Procedures, the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines and the SERM Act.
- 3.7 All NSW RFS staff, whether designing or commissioning new or updated resources, developing official or endorsed websites or other applications must ensure compliance with the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines.

- 3.8 Brigades, business units, members and external parties may be requested to withdraw items that have been created without approval of the use of NSW RFS insignia and/or name.
- 3.9 Any unauthorised, fraudulent or inappropriate use of NSW RFS brand or its insignia and/or name may result in disciplinary action.

SOP 1.4.2 - 1

Approval for Use of NSW RFS Insignia and Name

Purpose

- 1.1 This SOP defines the levels of approval and approval procedures required for reproduction or usage of NSW RFS insignia and name.

Procedures

Approval levels

- 2.1 For all items promotional, collectable, memorabilia or online in nature, approval and compliance is managed by the Organisational Communications unit within the Executive Services Directorate. This includes items initiated by external parties.
- 2.2 For items initiated at brigade level for use only by brigades within the DTZ, approval and compliance is managed at the DTZ level.
- 2.3 For items initiated at the DTZ level or at the brigade level for use across the NSW RFS, approval and compliance is managed at regional level.
- 2.4 For items initiated at regional level, by HQ business units or external parties, approval and compliance is managed by the Organisational Communications unit within the Executive Services Directorate.
- 2.5 Refer to the Quick Reference Guide – Do you need approval? Table, at the end of this SOP for examples of scenarios.

When approval is not required

- 2.6 NSW RFS members do not need to request approval to use Service-related materials depicting NSW RFS insignia in the following circumstances:
 - a. Using pre-approved NSW RFS branded templates and resources
 - b. Using content created complying with the NSW RFS Social Media style guide and/or the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines.
 - c. On social media when it is part of approved NSW RFS activities and members depicted are complying with all relevant Service Standards (e.g. photos of members wearing PPC and/or NSW RFS vehicles etc).

Procedures

Approval process

- 3.1 All applications and approvals for use of the NSW RFS insignia and name are to be made on the Request to Reproduce NSW RFS Insignia and/or Name form and submitted to comms@rfs.nsw.gov.au.
- 3.2 All submitted Request to Reproduce NSW RFS Insignia and/or Name forms are to be retained by Organisational Communications for audit purposes.
- 3.3 Approvals for submissions from external parties must contain conditions that define:
 - a. the elements of the NSW RFS insignia and/or name to be approved;
 - b. the express purpose of the approval; and
 - c. the duration of the approval or the maximum number of items permitted to be produced.
- 3.4 Where approval is given for an annual, prescheduled or recurring event, each time the event is scheduled to occur, the Approver must ensure in writing that the use of the NSW RFS insignia and/or name remains consistent with the usage approved.

Managing design work

- 3.5 Commissioning designs (e.g. publications, graphics, etc) associated with the NSW RFS brand using either the internal NSW RFS design service or an external provider requires:
- a. Adequate design briefing and ongoing monitoring throughout the process to ensure compliance with the NSW RFS Brand Guidelines.
 - b. Final approval of artwork to be undertaken by Organisational Communications or the relevant Approver.
- 3.6 Organisational Communications will approve the processes for engaging external providers.

Fundraising, raffles and charity requests

- 3.7 Approval for use of NSW RFS insignia and/or name in charity events or fundraising activities (raffles etc) can only be given where it is an appropriately approved NSW RFS activity.
- 3.8 When approving the use of NSW RFS insignia and/or name for purposes of fundraising and charity events or at functions to encourage local goodwill and support, the Approver must be able to verify that it is for the purposes of bettering the reputation of the NSW RFS in the operations of its duty in line with the Rural Fires Act 1997.
- 3.9 Advice should be sought from Organisational Communications to ensure compliance with the One NSW RFS Brand Guidelines, this Service Standard and the SERM Act.
