1 Purpose

1.1 This Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) defines the complete nomination process for Internal Service Awards and the roles and responsibilities of all members.

2 Procedures

Categories of Internal Service Award and Criteria for Nominations

Commissioner’s Award for Valour

2.1 The Award for Valour is awarded to recognise an act or acts of conspicuous courage involving exceptional bravery under circumstances of great peril where there has been a clear and significant risk to life.

Commissioner’s Commendation for Bravery

2.2 The Commissioner’s Commendation for Bravery is awarded to recognise an act of courage under hazardous circumstances where the risk to life has not been significant as to warrant the Commissioner’s Award for Valour but is worthy of recognition.

Commissioner’s Commendation for Service

2.3 The Commissioner’s Commendation for Service is awarded for service of a meritorious nature, or outstanding actions in relation to fire service duties, administrative leadership, or exemplary performance of a specific difficult project or task, not involving bravery.

Commissioner’s Unit Citation for Bravery

2.4 The Commissioner’s Unit Citation for Bravery is awarded to crews, brigades, groups or organised Units, where outstanding service involving group bravery warrants recognition.

Commissioner’s Unit Citation for Service

2.5 The Commissioner’s Unit Citation for Service is awarded to crews, brigades, groups or organised Units to recognise outstanding service of a meritorious nature, such as group action in relation to fire service duties, group work performance, or other outstanding or meritorious service not involving bravery.

Commissioner’s Certificate of Commendation (Unit and Individual)

2.6 The Commissioner’s Certificate of Commendation is awarded to recognise service or outstanding actions in relation to fire service duties, administrative leadership, or exemplary performance of a specific project or task. The Certificate of Commendation may be awarded to an individual or Unit for service beyond the scope of responsibility normally expected of that person or Unit in their assigned duties and is therefore worthy of acknowledgement and commendation.

2.7 The insignia of internal awards are worn on NSW RFS uniforms in line with protocols outlined in the booklet titled “Internal Bravery and Service Awards Booklet”. A copy of this booklet is also on the NSW RFS public website, Intranet and MyRFS.

The Rural Fire Service Awards Committee

2.8 The nomination process is coordinated by the NSW RFS Awards Committee (the Committee). The Committee will make a recommendation to the Commissioner on each nomination and advise the Commissioner on such matters concerning an award as the Commissioner may refer to the Committee.
2.9 The Committee is comprised of six individuals;
   a. One person who has been nominated by the Rural Fire Service Association (RFSA) to represent District Managers;
   b. Another person who has been nominated by the RFSA to represent volunteers up to the rank of Group Captain;
   c. Three further Committee members who have been nominated by the Commissioner of the NSW RFS to represent the Commissioner and staff; and
   d. An executive director appointed to represent the Commissioner to chair the Committee.

2.10 The Manager Membership Administration shall administer the Committee.

2.11 A member of the Committee shall hold office for a period of 4 years from the date of appointment. The Committee members remain eligible for reappointment.

2.12 The Committee shall meet a minimum of once annually and then as and when required.

2.13 The nomination process must be both transparent and accountable. Members of the Committee will at all times, demonstrate accountability in the process of each nomination.

2.14 The Committee must submit its final recommendations for Awards to the Commissioner. Recommendations are made with supporting documentation in line with these SOPs. The Commissioner has final determination in the approval of the list of recommended recipients.

Nominations

Assessment of Nominations

2.15 The Committee meets in November and considers all nominations made for internal awards for that year. The Committee makes a recommendation to the Commissioner on the type and level of internal award to be awarded, including a recommendation to decline an award.

2.16 The Committee may recommend the upgrading or downgrading of any nomination for an internal bravery or service award.

2.17 In considering nominations, the Committee seeks to satisfy itself that the person concerned has:
   a. Made a significant contribution to the NSW RFS;
   b. Gone above and beyond what could reasonably be expected of someone in a similar position;
   c. Made a contribution which stands out from others who may have also made a valuable contribution; or
   d. Demonstrated all of the eligibility requirements of the particular award.

2.18 The degree and value of the contribution, rather than merely the length of service is the primary focus for awards for service.

2.19 The degrees and levels of risk and survivability are the primary focus for awards for valour and bravery.

Eligibility for Nominations

2.20 All members of the NSW RFS are eligible to be nominated for the Internal Service Awards. Members of the Service are defined at Section 8 of the Rural Fires Act 1997 as being:
   a. The Commissioner and other staff of the NSW RFS; and
   b. All volunteer members.

2.21 Contract and temporary staff are not eligible to be nominated for an Internal Service Award.

Eligibility of Person Nominating

2.22 Any member of the NSW RFS may nominate any other member of the Service for an Internal Service Award.

2.23 Self-nominations are unacceptable and will not be processed.
2.24 The Commissioner may award an internal Bravery and Service Award to any member of the NSW RFS or any other person at any time and for any reason. Additionally, the Awards Committee may recommend to the Commissioner the nomination of a member or unit of the NSW RFS for an Internal Bravery and Service Award.

2.25 Nominations must be received by the Manager Membership Administration by close of business 1 October annually.

Nomination Form

2.26 Members of the NSW RFS must be nominated for an award using the prescribed Nomination Form in line with the criteria set out in these SOPs.

Preparing a Nomination

2.27 When filling out the Nomination Form, the Nominator must pay particular attention to the detail of the following:

a. Ensuring that the complete and accurate contact details of the person being nominated for an award have been recorded.

b. Ensuring the complete and accurate contact details of the nominator (the individual completing and submitting the nomination) have been recorded.

c. Ensuring the nominees first name, other given names (if applicable) and surname have been recorded i.e. John William Buckman.

d. Ensuring that the nomination and recommendation/s address all eligibility criteria, and that all wording is appropriate and the information provided is true and accurate.

2.28 It is helpful to include examples that best show how the nominee has gone above and beyond what could reasonably be expected of someone in a similar position.

2.29 In the case of nominations for an award for valour or bravery, look carefully at the wording of the requirements for the particular award. Provide sufficient detail to enable an accurate assessment to be made of the level of risk to life and the survivability of the individual or individuals in their carriage of the act/s.

2.30 In the case of nominations for an award for valour or bravery, identify witnesses to the incident described and the act/s undertaken and, if possible provide statements from these witnesses.

2.31 In the case of nominations for an award for valour or bravery, it is imperative that the location is accurately identified and time that the act or event took place is shown. Describe in detail the act/s of the individual concerned and the circumstance under which the act/s took place and the level of risk involved.

2.32 In preparing the nomination, consider and record why the nominee’s service and achievements are outstanding and worthy of recognition through the Internal Awards system.

Confidentiality

2.33 Whoever nominates a member or unit for an award will do so confidentially. The details of each nomination are kept confidential. If a nomination is successful, the member(s) is advised.

2.34 In accordance with this Service Standard all Internal Service Award nominations are strictly confidential and the information provided shall be used only to assist the Committee in considering the merits of the nomination.

2.35 The person nominated should not be approached for information or advised of their nomination at any stage.

2.36 The processes of the NSW RFS Internal Awards follow closely those used by the Honours Secretariat in Canberra and the Manager, Membership Administration will not release information concerning the process or progress of a nomination.
2.37 The Manager, Membership Administration shall acknowledge receipt of a nomination for an award to the nominator and line management only. Unless the Committee requires additional information, no further information concerning an award will be provided by the Manager Membership Administration, including details of unsuccessful nominations or the reasons why a nomination was unsuccessful.

2.38 If a nominated person does not receive an award, then clearly the nomination was unsuccessful. However, unsuccessful nominations for an award may be renominated in the following year.

2.39 Members of the NSW RFS may or may not accept a nomination. As nominations are strictly confidential, this matter will at all times remain a discreet and private matter between the Commissioner and the nominated member.

Offer of Award

2.40 Recipients are advised in writing of the offer of an award. The names of successful nominees shall be published annually on St Florian’s Day (4 May).

Role of Management

2.41 Managers play a vital part in the internal awards process. District and business unit Managers endorse nominations and confirm the nominee is worthy of the award they are nominated for.

2.42 Managers check the nomination form to ensure:
   a. The completeness and appropriateness of the nomination;
   b. Detailed examples of the nominee’s contribution to the NSW RFS are provided.
   c. That the appropriate signatures have been obtained and affixed to the Nomination Form and that all details are correct.

2.43 Managers consider the nomination and make a recommendation regarding the nominee.

2.44 Regional Managers are to consider the nomination based on its merits and make a recommendation.

Management Recommendations

2.45 In the case that managers are not intending to recommend a particular award, they should attach their written reasons for not recommending a particular award to the Nomination Form and submit this to the next level in the NSW RFS chain of command. This will ensure that the Committee is privy to all of the information concerning a particular proposal for an award.

Cancellation and Reinstatement

2.46 Where an award is cancelled, the name of the person to whom it was awarded will be removed from the Register and that person will return the award to the Committee.

2.47 Where an award has been cancelled and restored, the Committee will restore the entry in the register.

2.48 The Commissioner may cancel an award to a person and may restore an award which was so cancelled.

Further Information and Assistance

2.49 If you have any further questions, or require guidance in the preparation of a nomination, please contact your Captain/Group Captain or Manager.
